

EDUCATION

Faculty: Professors Bakken, Hunzicker; Associate Professors Jung, Kuester, Lukowiak, Rios Vega, Wherfel (chair), Yang; Assistant Professors Iacoponi, Lee, Nusser, Waychunas.

In Bradley's online Doctor of Education (Ed.D) (concentration in Digital and Online Education (<https://catalog.bradley.edu/graduate/programs/doctor-education-educational-leadership-educational-technology/>) or Higher Education Administration (<https://catalog.bradley.edu/graduate/programs/doctor-education-educational-leadership-higher-education-administration/>)) program, every aspect is designed by renowned practitioners with a deep understanding of the educational experience. The core courses and concentration courses build practical knowledge and skill; the action research courses build scholarly knowledge and skill; and the internship or digital portfolio combine academics and scholarship through real-world application that is customized to each student's personal and career goals.
