About Us

Since 1946, Bradley University has promoted professional development by engaging its students in graduate level research, creative production, workplace-oriented experiences and theoretical studies to help them become industry leaders. With the flexibility your busy lifestyle demands and myriad degree options from which to choose, the University will help you take the next step in your education and career:

- Over forty on-campus graduate, doctorate and certificate programs across five colleges.
- Over twenty graduate online degree/certificate options that will allow you to continue your studies from anywhere in the country.

The strength of Bradley's graduate programs lies in the outstanding quality of its faculty, who mentor students in an engaged academic community. With a strong commitment to facilitating student learning, the faculty strive to advance knowledge relevant to society's local, regional, and global needs.

Bradley University offers state-of-the-art facilities, a diverse cultural environment, and a beautiful campus. Our graduate programs rapidly adapt to external forces that call for students to synthesize information and integrate knowledge as they prepare for careers in a world that promises continued technological change.

University-Level Oversight

The Director of Graduate Education, in conjunction with the Executive Committee of the Graduate Faculty, develops policies and procedures that guide all activities relating to post-baccalaureate education at Bradley. Together, they serve to provide guidance and leadership for initiating and maintaining post baccalaureate programs of the highest quality. This includes:

- supporting Graduate Program Coordinators and Directors
- approving membership to the Graduate Faculty
- assuring uniformly high quality by establishing standards for all programs
- acting as the administrator for non-degree programs
- acting as an advocate before the university administration in support of departments and colleges offering graduate programs.

Chief among the various roles of the Director of Graduate Education is providing for the welfare of graduate students and members of the graduate faculty by identifying the needs of both of these constituencies. These needs are brought to light by seeking input through the Executive Committee of the Graduate Faculty, program coordinators, department chairs/directors, and the Graduate Student Advisory Committee. Once needs are identified, the Director of Graduate Education is charged with the responsibility of seeking a means to meeting these needs as expeditiously as possible.
