

LEGAL STUDIES MINOR

Department: Political Science and Law (<https://catalog.bradley.edu/undergraduate/liberal-arts-sciences/political-science/>)

The legal studies minor is to provide students with a curriculum devoted to the development of research and communication skills unique to the legal profession. The minor embraces the ethical dilemmas and responsibilities faced by lawyers.

The minor is open to any student in any college and any major.

The minor will be comprised of a total of 15 hours and require the following:

Code	Title	Hours
PLW 101	Introduction to the Legal Profession	1.0
PLW 102	Introduction to Legal Research	2.0
PLW 325	Legal Ethics	3.0
PLW 400	Capstone Experience	3.0
Select two of the following:		6.0
COM 330	Communication Law and Ethics
ENG 306	Advanced Writing--Business Communication
PLS 317	International Law
PLS 459	Constitutional Law: Institutional Powers and Constraints
PLS 460	Constitutional Law: Civil Rights and Civil Liberties
PHL 203	Logic
PLW 295	Introduction to Trial Advocacy
HIS 307	History of the Early American Republic
BLW 342	Legal Environment of Business
BLW 446	Employment Law ¹
BLW 347	Law and the Entrepreneur
Total Hours		15

At least one course must come from the BLW list of courses.